On July 8, 2011, Davis & Associates, PLLC secured a grand jury no bill in a indecency with a child case in Harris County, Texas. Our client, who was the step father of the alleged victim, was falsely accused of “grooming” his step daughter by showing her pornographic videos and masturbating in front of her. Once retained on the case, our office began an investigation which included subpoenaing CPS records and the alleged victim’s school records. We also obtained statements from witnesses who offered testimony about the client’s good character and the alleged victim’s reputation for being untruthful. Our client was adamant about his innocence. So we had him submit to a polygraph examination by a polygraph examiner who routinely administers polygraphs for law enforcement agencies. The client passed the polygraph. Thereafter, we put together a grand jury packet and, following discussions with the district attorney, we requested that it be submitted to the grand jury. The grand jury found no probable cause and returned “no bill” of indictment. The client has gone free without a trial. (The Cause number for this case is 1291922).
